Legend Buttes is named for the nearby buttes. The course is in good condition and the surroundings are very scenic. The White River winds across the course and most of the fairways are lined by trees, wildflowers, and deep grass. The first three holes are fairly simple. Things get a little tougher on the fourth hole. The fifth hole is very challenging. It has a hillside tee box that provides a spectacular view of the hole. You must strike a straight ball in order to avoid the water on the right and the brush and trees to the left. The par 5, 9th is a great finishing hole. It has enough hazard to make you careful while still allowing a chance for a big hitter to get home in two.
