This challenging course lies at the base of Scotts Bluff National Monument. Holes 2 through 8 are part of the original 9 hole layout with wide, straight, tree-lined fairways. The fairways lead to medium-sized greens that have subtle built-in breaks. The rest of the course was built in 1996 and features mounding, sand traps and water. You can get a good view of the city of Scottsbluff from either the 3rd fairway or the 7th tee box. The 3rd has "badlands" along the right side of the fairway. It is a scenic washed-out sand rock area that is part of the monument. If you like golf with a view, get to Gering.
